Hot Topic. Hazardous Weather Training
Effective the week of December 2, 2024 Hazardous Weather training is now required for all "direct contact" leaders and will be reflected in unit training reports. Hazardous Weather training expires every two years and is required to be fully trained in many positions.

Safety Moment. How to Review the AHMR
If you have been given the responsibility of managing your unit's Annual Health and Medical Records (AHMRs), this Safety Moment will help you review the unit's AHMR—even if your knowledge of medicine is limited to basic first aid.

Membership Moment: Year-Round Recruitment
Historically, there has been a strong emphasis on fall recruitment drives to replenish unit membership. Spring recruitment drives were added to include more youth during summer activities. However, we are now at a time where year-round recruitment is possible and preferable to the once or twice a year recruitment events.

Cub Scout Leader Breakout: Cub Scout Camping
Camping is one of the premier experiences that families can enjoy in Cub Scouting. We'll review some guidelines and regulations and discuss the variety of ways to go camping in Cub Scouts.

Scout Troop Leader Breakout: Planning a High Adventure Trip
There's weekend overnight camping, there's weeklong summer camps, and then there's high adventure trips. We promised these young people adventure. Let's deliver on that promise. We'll walk you through 12 recommended steps for planning your next high adventure in Scouting.
